

The NC Republican Legislature is Working for You

Positive Economic Indicators for NC

- #1 State for Business in 2025 by CNBC
- #1 for Economic Development in 2025 by Business Facilities magazine.
- #6 State Economy by Wallet Hub
- #7 by Growth Rate over last 5 years by IBIS World
- 12 NC companies make Fortune 500 list

New Laws 2025-26 to move NC forward

Citizen Services

Implement significant reforms to the foster care system including more oversight to improve care.

Recognize 2 sexes & prevent sexual exploitation of women and minors.

The NC legislature has spent 1.9B on Hurricane Helene relief.

Crime Prevention

Iryna's law ended cashless bail for many violent or repeat offenders among other provisions.

Provide that certain employees and volunteers at nonpublic schools may carry certain weapons on educational property when authorized.

Increased cooperation is mandated between local law enforcement & federal immigration authorities (ICE).

Education

An average 8% raise for teachers and bonuses based on years of service.

Boosts the base salary for beginning teachers to $48,000 before local supplements

Finances

Approval from General Assembly is required for new regulations estimated to cost at least $20 million over the first 5 years.

Additional responsibilities were added to the NC Auditor. He appoints election board members, has expanded access to state databases and leads an entirely new DOGE-like division tasked with recommending job cuts. An audit of NC Central University found $45 million in reporting errors.

Lower personal income tax rates - 4.25% in 2025, 3.99% in 2026 and scheduled to fall to 2.99% by 2032.

A constitutional amendment will be on the ballot in 2026 to cap personal and corporate income taxes at 3.5%, currently at 7%.

Another amendment is under consideration to cap property tax growth through a levy limit.

Repealed Duke Energy's carbon reduction mandate will reduce incentives for large scale conversion of valuable farmland to solar fields.

Infrastructure

Stopped Capital Blvd. in northern Wake County from becoming a toll road.

Keep the results coming for a

- prosperous economy
- fiscal responsibility
- sensible policies

Vote for Republican Candidates

Paid for by _____